It is difficult to believe that this large and luxurious home set high on Brighton Hill was once a market gardener's cottage in the 1880s and supplied the city with fresh produce. The large garden might be a giveaway, but then the weatherboard walls also exude a charm and character that extends to the warm welcome.

Waratah's guest areas are furnished with a wonderfully eclectic mix of European antiques and modern furniture, and the central kitchen is the natural place to gather for a chat. There's a great feeling of warmth and plenty of space in the formal or informal dining rooms, outdoors by the pool, and in the six-person spa.

The rooms are simply delightful and there's a wide range to choose from including the two in-house bedrooms (one with private courtyard), and the two apartment-style rooms that open to the outdoors. Harry does a wonderful cooked brekkie, Brighton's shops and the beach are nearby, and it's hard to think of a more stylish and welcoming B&B in such a location.

Location: 13km or 20 minutes southeast of Melbourne CBD. Map 7. Melway 67 G12. HEMA RA 41 F4.

Facilities: In-house: one queen ensuite room (RC AC, ducted heating, private courtyard); apartment-style two queen rooms (RC AC) with bathroom (separate toilet); double ensuite room. Each with LCD TV, DVD, CD. Guest lounge (gas log fire), informal lounge (open fire, Foxtel TV). Swimming pool, spa. Full breakfast served.
